

August 21, 2017

Elsa Prince-Broekhuizen
190 S. River Ave.
Suite 300
Holland, MI 49423
Cert#:

RE: DEMAND FOR $175,000 SENT TO YOUR PRESIDENT ROBERT HAVEMAN
REPRESENTING EDWARD D. PRINCE MANAGEMENT LLC

Dear Ms. Prince-Broekhuizen,

Since Judge Gayles gave me an option to refile the case Federally or other, Pursuant to Florida Statute 722.11, you are hereby delivered my demand for my money that you have illegally stolen from me. Unless I receive $175,000, plus 10% interest to date (wire attached), or U.S. $309,913, within the next 30 days,
a lawsuit will be filed against you and your companies.

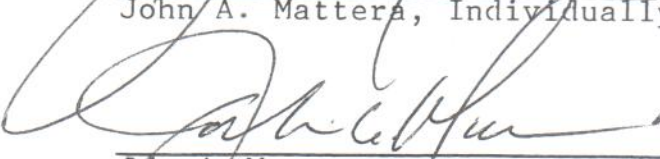

Per Florida law, the lawsuit will include the entire balance due, plus interest, and will also include treble damages per Florida Statute 722.11. Funds may be wired as follows:

Bank: JP Morgan Chase Bank, 4900 Eldorado Parkway, Frisco, Tx 75023
Acct. Name: Mattera Asset Management
ABA#: 111000615
Acct.#: 683700533

GOVERN YOURSELF ACCORDINGLY.

John A. Mattera, Individually

John A. Mattera
President, Mattera Asset Management, Inc.

John A. Mattera
President, Rhino Island Capital, Inc.

CC: Richard Klugh, ESQ
Scott Lieberman, ESQ
Christopher Matthews, WSJ
Pam Bondi, Attorney General State of Florida
Attorney General State of Texas